Customer Reviews

This book was so much fun to read aloud to my daughter. She was mesmerized by the bold illustrations, and the dialogue between the boy and the waiter was really funny for kids and adults. Definitely moving this one into the daily rotation.

This book is the best - the illustrations are super fun and really make it an awesome book to read to kids of a variety of ages. Bought several as gifts and received a rave set of thank yous and reviews from all the kids!!

Great read! The story is really cute and the illustrations are bright and colorful. This is a super addition to our children's library!

This book is great!! The story is adorable and so much fun to read to my son and the illustrations are incredible - they make it all the more enjoyable to read!

I bought this book as a gift for two 5-year-old kids, and they both loved it. It's funny, has great illustrations, and keeps their attention (no small feat)!

My son thought this was hilarious. It was a lot of fun to read aloud to him. Such a clever premise, and the illustrations are bright and funny.

Various animals appear in the soup of a restaurant patron. Different animals are introduced and allow for discussions about the animals.
