Initially, the Doflamingo fight was more than just a little underwhelming to me, but as time does what it does and go by, I've returned to this arc from the stellar one that's going on now and my verdict: not a bad arc at all. Certainly not the best, but definitely not the worst. It did what it was supposed to do, show us the new strengths of the Straw Hats that Fishman Island TRIED to do and Punk Hazard simply, blatantly did not, and showed us where our plucky little crew stands in the world. I kept wishing and hoping and praying they would make Doffy an end game antagonist, and somewhere deep down, I still think he will be, but now we know, or at least, have some understanding of the hierarchy of power here. I suggest you subscribe to Mangastream keep yourself up to date with One Piece because rereading this, we are SO far away from the late 700 chapters and SO much has happened. Also, I'd say subscribe to Sawyer7mage for quality reviews on the ongoing manga. Thanks, guys!

One Piece is really amazing, i wanted, so i ordered it, but the cover and some papers were damaged. I'm very disappointed.
