Customer Reviews

We love this simple book. It is beautiful with sweet, colorful illustrations. All of our children love it, but our 4 and 5 year olds especially enjoy it. We try to incorporate nature study in our homeschool on a regular basis, so this is a fun way to do that with our younger children. The paper quality is wonderful. Thick and sturdy. I'm hoping to add another book or two in this series to our home library.

A beautifully illustrated book. I highly recommend for the 0-5 year age group.

Beautiful book and I love how well the author has explained concepts
