Customer Reviews

Where is Gah-Ning? is a terrific story for all ages. My 6 year old has loved it for 2 years now, and her 15 month old sister likes it too, especially when read in different voices. Gah-Ning is like many little girls, determined to get to where she wants to go, whether or not her father says no! Additionally, the story takes place in Canada, and my daughter has looked up Kapuskasing on a map, and is learning about Canada and its cultures. We look forward to reading more books by Robert Munsch. Melissa and David Rinn (along with Devon and Hanna) dmdhr@capital.net Queensbury, NY

Fun book, you'll enjoy reading it to your kid. No consequences for the little girl repeatedly disobeying her parents, though. Lost a star for not having a moral. The only lesson to be learned here is do whatever you want, it'll be OK. Also by R. Munsch: Try Smelly Socks & Stephanie's Pony Tail, too. Skip A Promise is a Promise & also I love You Forever.

I've enjoyed Robert Munsch's books since I was a little kid and this "Where is Gah-Ning?" has always been one of my favorites. I bought this gift for a Kapuskasing-born friend's baby girl. It's hard to find such fun and cute books that use Northern Ontario as a setting!

I love Robert Munsch books, and always enjoyed reading them to my classes. Now that I'm retired and substitute, I decided to add a few of his books to my sub bag. They are always well-loved by the kids (I ham it up, too, when I read, which doesn't hurt!); I think a lot of teachers now forget about Munsch's treasures! Cute story with a good moral.
