The Children's Atlas Of World History

Synopsis

The Children's Atlas of World History provides clear explanations of all of the main events in history. Full-color photographs and detailed illustrations bring each historical period to life. Informative maps graphically reveal the extent of civilizations and empires, the routes of discovery and exploration, the growth of trade, the development of world wars, and the influence of evolving religions. Illustrated timecharts, a glossary, and a comprehensive index are included for easy reference.
