Nephilim Stargates: The Year 2012 And The Return Of The Watchers

Synopsis

One myth from the history of every great civilization spoke of beings descending from heaven and using human and animal DNA to create giant offspring. Rabbinical authorities, Septuagint translators and early church fathers understood this as a factual record of history. The phenomenon began with the Watchers who spawned Nephilim resulting in judgment from God. The ancients also knew Bible passages that predict the Nephilim will return when Iraq and Iran are invaded and destroyed. Is this prophecy about to be fulfilled? Is man, in his rush to play god through biological weapons, biotechnology, and genetic manipulation, opening gateways to a supernatural unknown? Nephilim Stargates and the Return of the Watchers is a glimpse into this past, present, and future phenomena, with an eye on what sages and scientists believe and what futurists and prophets may fear. Thomas Horn is CEO of Raiders News Network, a syndicated columnist, and the bestselling author of The Ahriman Gate. He has written two other books as well as dozens of published editorials and magazine articles. His works have been referred to by writers of the LA Times Syndicate, MSNBC, Christianity Today, Coast to Coast, World Net Daily, and White House Correspondents. Thomas resides outside Portland, Oregon.

A Review of Nephilim Stargates: The Year 2012 And The Return Of The Watchers by Thomas R. Horn "There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, Than are dreamt of in your philosophy."--From Hamlet (I, v, 166-167) Over the last 100 years, it has been well documented that there are things happening in our world that just cannot be explained. Actually, it has been going on much longer than 100 years--in reality, since the beginning of time itself. Conventional science has maintained, and would have us to believe, that nothing is going on--other than over-active imaginations or those suffering from severe cases of ADD. However, there are just too many witnesses and sources that have verified that many of these are real occurrences. The many sightings of UFOs, otherworldly beings and strange creatures by reliable witnesses have really happened. But, if they're real, what are they? Some would have us to believe that these beings and those controlling the unidentified objects are simply benevolent beings that only wish to help humanity. But is that the case? Or, is it all part of a grand scheme of deception? In his new book, Nephilim Stargates: The Year 2012 And The Return Of The Watchers, Tom Horn delivers a wealth of research and information, both historical and current, that these are not benevolent creatures from another galaxy. Rather, they are ancient, evil beings from the spiritual dimension. Tom Horn holds no punches in describing what he believes, in light of the Bible, are the plans of these beings. There are no flights of fancy here, only vividly frightening nightmares that few wish to accept as being real. We have a hard time comprehending how evil, evil really is.

There may be truth in this book but it is delivered in such poor fashion as to render it to the ranks of sub-science fiction. Firstly the author never commits to a position. He at times seems to be a creationist and at others an evolutionist. He moves between the camps of Secular and Christian like the very serpent he is trying to identify. So are the Nephilim the offspring of the Sons of God (Angels), Demons, Aliens or some mutant hybrids? Well if you read this book - you'll never find out. Secondly the author seems to think that his work of fiction is so real that it requires constant reference and review. I got to the point where I started skipping segments when I saw it was yet again a piece of the author's fictional book. Thirdly and I am sorry if I offend any of you out there - but the intent of the author is the purpose of any book NOT what you think it means. When I say the "sky is blue" I mean the "sky" is "blue". You can attempt to make the statement say whatever you want but what I said was the "sky is blue". When it comes to the Bible which this author quotes regularly or should I say he quotes the versions that suit his dogma (and yes he is a Catholic fan), he makes his interpretations fit his so-called facts and not the other way around. For example, in Matthew, Jesus states that he will build His Church and the gates of Hell will not stand against it. This author then uses the word "gates" and creates the what-if scenario (of which this book is full of them) of what if the gates of Hell are Stargates or Portals. He forces his viewpoint upon the text instead of allowing the context and the Bible to define itself. He clearly does not have even the basic grasp of Hermeneutics or any consideration other than what he wants to promote.
