Journey With J.W.: John Wesley's Ride Through Methodist History

Synopsis

John Wesley and Friends is a revision of JW & Company (published by Cokesbury 1997). This revision updates and condenses the materials in the previous product's notebook and presents them in an easy-to-use, reproducible format. Children will ride through United Methodist history with John Wesley and the early Methodists. Children will experience life in the times of John Wesley and the circuit riders. It's a great learning experience that's fun! • Easy-to-follow directions for crafts, games, and music • Scripts for historical dramas and Bible stories • Ideas for setting up interest centers • Interactive "Walk Through Wesley" timeline • Ways to utilize the gifts and talents of the adults in your congregation • A variety of options to create an interactive learning experience that fits your specific situation. Children will learn • about our United Methodist heritage and how it has shaped who we are as people of faith • that God inspired John Wesley and other early leaders of our church to spread the good news about Jesus throughout the world • that God continues to call us to tell the world about Jesus today
